

Thank you for your healing hands . . .
Thank you for your relentless pursuit . . .
Thank you for your cowboy ways . . .

If it weren't for you
I would not have so many amazing days
You gave me a new life
Healed my body
Took away the strife

This life is better
Than I could ever have dreamed of
You carved out a space in me
And I've filled it with love
You energized and renewed my spirit
Enough energy to again seek my soul
I've emerged better than ever
And for the first time, truly feel whole.
It's a miracle, with this gift from God
You do what you do . . .
For all those women out there
This cowgirl says a heartfelt THANK YOU.
